

Néstor Abatidaga

ALASA

President

Born in the city of Sunchales, Province of Santa Fe, Argentina, Néstor boasts a track record of over 50 years as a member of staff at Grupo Sancor Seguros, and is the current Chairman of ALASA (the Latin American Association for the Development of Agricultural Insurance).

Néstor joined the company at a very young age, and built his entire career in it. In 1999 he was named General Manager of SANCOR SEGUROS, the top position of the company's organization chart at the time. Working in this role for over ten years, he succeeded in positioning the insurer as a leader in the domestic market, and launched an internationalization effort that enabled expanding the company's business through proprietary firms in Uruguay, Paraguay and Brazil.

Néstor was CEO of Grupo Sancor Seguros between January 1, 2012 and October 31, 2016. During this time, he stood out for being the driving force behind the creation of new companies, consolidating the organization's economic, financial and productive standing.

As a result of a generational turnover process, he was named Corporate General Director on November 1, 2016, thus taking on a key role as a political and institutional representative of Grupo Sancor Seguros.

During 2015 and 2016 he presided over the UN Global Compact Network Argentina, representing it actively both nationally and internationally.

Apart from presiding over ALASA, Néstor is a Full Member of the Ethics and Arbitration Court of ADIRA (Inland Insurance Companies of Argentina), and President of SANCOR SEGUROS Uruguay, SANCOR SEGUROS Paraguay, and Banco del Sol (the SANCOR SEGUROS digital bank).
