

Delphine Létendart

Groupama

Head of Professional and Individual Market

Delphine Létendart is currently head of Professional and Individual Markets at Groupama, the mutual group leader in agro insurance in France.

She has an experience of more than twenty years in the insurance industry, starting as MultiPeril Crop Insurance project manager in 1997. Then, she occupied various responsibilities in underwriting, claim management, data science and project management. She is a specialist in all risk areas in Agriculture. She graduated in Master of Science in Engineering of AgroParisTech.

She is also Chairman of the Agriculture Committee at the French Insurance Federation.